Burgundy, Beaune & Beer:
strong links

Burgundy has always been a geographic crossroad, a place where North and South of Europe met and exchanged. If our region is famous today for its fine wines, gastronomy and architecture, there are many strong links between beer and Burgundy.

In the Middle Ages, Jean Sans Peur (John the Fearless), Duke of a Burgundy region which was then going as far as Flanders, created in 1419 the «Order of Hop». He required the use of this plant to improve and stabilize the taste of the drink named «bière» (beer) for the first time (it was called «cervoise» in French before this).

*Beaune, a town
of many flavours*

Attractive and magnetic, Beaune is a city where the lifestyle can be enjoyed every moment. Here, it's all about sharing and conviviality.

Proud of our roots and a nod to local history, we proudly display on our label Causa Nostrae Laetitiae, Beaune's first motto, meaning the Cause of our Joy.

THE BEER TO ENJOY BEAUNE
EVERY DAY

*Belenium : a tribute to the Celtic god Belenos
who gave his name to our town of Beaune*

Beaune takes its name from its inhabitants, whom, 2000 years ago, worshiped Benelos, Celtic god of harmony and beauty.

By choosing Belenium as a name, we pay tribute to the earliest roots of our city and we express our deep and sincere attachment to Beaune.

Salle de Brassage

A man with glasses and a beard is smiling in the background. In the foreground, a tall glass of golden beer with a thick white head of foam is shown. The glass has a blue logo with 'BM' and the text 'BELENIUM BEAUNE - BOURGOGNE Bière Artisanale' on it.

Craft beers made in Beaune for an authentic taste

All Belenium beers are craft beers, unpasteurized and unfiltered, made in small batches and bottle refermented.

Their authentic, non-standardized taste, will appeal to amateurs looking for a quality product hand-crafted with care in the heart of Burgundy.

We are 3 craft brewers ('artisans brasseurs')

In 2014, Jean-David Camus, Alexandre Faupin and Nicolas Seyve decided to launch BELENIUM, the first craft brewery in Beaune.

These three friends originally from Beaune, or Beaunois of heart, have decided through this local project to put forward the values they hold dear: quality and products' flavour, use of local resources, combining tradition and innovation.
