TRADITIONS

Legend of the Pierre Aiguë

The Pierre Aiguë stands two kilometres east of the Vieille Montagne. This remarkable pile of stones is said to be dedicated to the Virgin. There is a very beautiful legend about this place. In the past, when the Virgin led Saint Barthélémy to Villapourçon, she wished to rest on a hill of the Niret. Before leaving, she placed three small stones on top of each other and said: "Small stones, you will become big".

When she left, the stones became as big as they are now. In her kindness, the Virgin saved the region and its inhabitants from the misfortune of war and the ravages of wolves on the sheep herds. The wolves, which were seen mingling with the sheep grazing under Pierre Aiguë, devouring the animals in the area. Finally, the last prediction of the Virgin was that the end of the world will not come, as long as the Pierre Aiguë exists.
