

A photograph of a farm scene. In the background, there is a large wooden barn with a corrugated metal roof. A metal gate is partially open. In the foreground, two goats are standing in a field of dry grass. One goat is on the left, looking towards the camera, and the other is on the right, looking away. To the left of the goats, there are several chickens, including a prominent one with a red comb and white body. The overall scene is a typical farm environment.
